

Haselton Trust Wildlife Biology Scholarship for $1,500

This scholarship was created from the Haselton Trust for those intending to study Wildlife Biology and then later help wildlife. There are so many Endangered Species and they need so much help. This scholarship can cover tuition, fees, and/or books.

Information on Zoologists & Wildlife Biologists Employment and Wages: bls.gov/oes/2023/may/oes191023.htm

Who is eligible to receive this scholarship?

- Any EHS senior with a minimum 3.0 GPA who is planning to continue their education as a full-time student at a college, university, vocational school, or technical school.
- Students planning to pursue Zoology.
- Students who have demonstrated sincere interest in Wildlife Management.
- Priority will be given to students who demonstrate financial need.

Print or Type Name:
Personal Email (not school email):
Home Address:
Phone Number:
GPA (4.0 Scale):

Print and sign this page and include:

- Essay with 1-3 paragraphs about your long-term educational or professional goals in this field and why you are choosing to pursue it (including any related experience in this field).
- Copy of your Academic Transcript.
- One letter of reference.

Applications are due by 4:00 p.m. on Tuesday, March 31, 2026.

I certify that the information submitted with this application is accurate and that all work submitted is mine.

Applicant's Signature

Date

Email your completed application materials all in one email to Brandy Fields at:
fieldsb@eastmont206.org

OR

Bring your completed application materials into our office or Mail them to:
Eastmont Administration Office
Eastmont Foundation
800 Eastmont Avenue
East Wenatchee, WA 98802

Completed applications returned by 4:00 p.m. on 3/31/2026 will be reviewed by the scholarship committee. The selected student will be awarded a one-time payment of $1,500 sent to the post-secondary institution they attend during the 2026-27 school year.